This is an OCR edition with typos. Excerpt from book: CHAPTER IV. REJOICINGS OF THE INHABITANTS OP CUBA ON THE ARRIVAL OP DE SOTO. DEPOSITION OF NUNO TOBAR. DON VASCO TOR- CALLp DE FIGUEROA, APPOINTED LIEUTENANT-GENERAL OF THE FORCES. The arrival of the now governor with so important an armament was an event of great joy throughout the island of Cuba. When De Soto landed, the whole city of Santiago turned out to receive him. He found a beautiful horse, richly caparisoned, waiting for him, and likewise a mule for Donna Isabella; which were furnished by a gentleman of the town. He was escorted to his lodgings, by the burghers on horse- and on foot, and all his officers and men were hospitably entertained by them; some being quartered in the town, and others in their country-houses. For several days it was one continued festival. At night there were balls and masquerades; by day, tilting matches, bull-fights, contests of skill in horsemanship, running at the ring, and other amusements of a chivalrous nature. The young cavaliers of the army vied with each other, and with the youth of the city, in the gallantry of their equipments, the elegance and novelty of their devices, and the wit and ingenuity of their mottoes. What gave peculiar splendor to these entertainments was the beauty and spirit and excellence of the horses. The great demand for these noble animals, for the conquests of Mexico and Peru, and other parts, rendered the raising of them one of the most profitable sources of speculation in the islands. The island of Cuba was naturally favorable to them; and as great care and attention had been, given to multiply and improve the breed, there was at this time an uncommon number, and of remarkably fine qualities. Many individuals had from twenty to thirty horses in their stables, and some of the rich had twice that n...

Hernando de Soto and Property in a Market Economy D.

Benjamin Barros 2016-04-22 Hernando de Soto is one of the world's leading public intellectuals. His books The Mystery of Capital and The Other Path have had a tremendous impact on debates about international development, but his work also has been controversial. One of de Soto's core ideas is that the institution of private property is necessary for the proper functioning of a market economy, yet even though many property scholars closely follow de Soto's work, his ideas have been neglected in property law scholarship and mature market economies like the United States. This new collection seeks to remedy this neglect, bringing together a diverse group of scholars to apply de Soto's work to a wide range of contemporary issues in property law and theory. The important contribution it makes to debates and controversies in property law, as well as in related economic fields, will appeal to scholars of both law and economics.

External Relations Dept. 2003-12-15 This paper describes why the international community needs to act now to stand a chance of meeting the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs). The paper gives example of Ethiopia, one of the poorest countries in the world, with an estimated per capita income of about US$100. According to the World Bank, recent national household surveys find 44 percent of the people in Ethiopia cannot meet basic needs. The paper discusses that Ethiopia in many ways epitomizes why the MDGs are important and why more money is needed to achieve them.
